

Arterial & Collector Streets

“Arterial” and “Collector” are terms used to describe larger roads in Chapel Hill. In certain zoning districts, the draft LUMO allows additional residential density and small businesses on properties that front on these larger roads.

*Please note that the additional residential density described in the map is also proposed to apply in areas within ¼ miles of greenway entrances. These locations are not shown on the map.